Lisa M. Moore Elected President of The Conference

Williamsburg, VA – Lisa M. Moore was elected President of The International Conference of Funeral Service Examining Boards at the 105th annual convention held February 26-27, 2009, in Williamsburg, Virginia, at the Kingsmill Resort.

Moore was elected in 2003 to serve on The International Conference of Funeral Service Examining Boards as Director of District 9, representing Arizona, California, Colorado, Hawaii, Nevada, and Utah. Mrs. Moore served as Secretary/Treasurer of The Conference in 2007 and as Vice President in 2008.

Mrs. Moore has been the Deputy Chief for the California Cemetery and Funeral Bureau for the past nine years. Moore has been with the Department of Consumer Affairs for 24 years, serving as interim program administrator for part of that time.

She and her husband, Loren, have five children and reside in Lodi, California.

The International Conference of Funeral Service Examining Boards is headquartered in Fayetteville, Arkansas. Founded in 1904, the membership of The Conference is composed of funeral service licensing and regulatory agencies throughout the United States and Canada.
